DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The Amendment, filed on July 27, 2007, has been entered and acknowledged by the Examiner.

Cancellation of claims 6-14 has been entered.

Claims 1-5 are pending in the instant application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tera et al. (US 2001/0031379).

Regarding claim 1, Tera discloses an organic electroluminescent device (Fig. 5), comprising a substrate (1), electrodes including a first electrode (2) formed on the substrate, and a second electrode (5) disposed to be spaced from the first electrode, a function layer (3, 4) formed between the electrodes, the function layer comprising a carrier injection layer, a carrier transport layer and a luminous layer ([0142]), a buffer layer (6) disposed on a first side of the second electrode (5), and a protective film layer (7) disposed on the first side of the second electrode (5), wherein the buffer layer is in contact with the first side of the second electrode and is disposed between the second electrode (5) and the protective film layer (6).

Art Unit: 2879

Regarding claim 2, Tera discloses a device wherein the buffer layer is formed in a distance of 20 nm or less from an upper end surface of the function layer (i.e., buffer layer 6 is formed over functional layer 3, 4, see Fig. 5).

Regarding claims 3 and 4, Tera discloses a device wherein the buffer layer contains aluminum oxide (Al_2O_3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tera et al. (US 2001/0031379) in view of Wakimoto (US 5,739,635).

Regarding claim 5, Tera fails to disclose the limitation of a thin layer contiguous with the function layer and containing any of an alkaline metal element and an alkaline earth metal element, the thin layer having a thickness of approximately 0.5 nm. In the same field of endeavor, Wakimoto discloses an organic electroluminescent device provided with a thin layer (6b) having electron injecting capabilities contiguous with the function layer and containing any of an alkaline metal element and an alkaline earth metal element in order to increase the emission efficiency and obtain high luminance in the device, the thin layer having a thickness of approximately 1 Å (Column 3, lines 8-9) to prevent obstructing electric current in the device. Thus, it would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skills in the art to incorporate the thin film electron injecting layer contiguous with the function layer disclosed by Wakimoto in the device of Tera in order to increase the emission efficiency and obtain high luminance in the device.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-5 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
